

Bridging Cultures in a Professional Japanese Environment: A Free Workshop for American College Educators

Wednesday May 27, 2015
Thomas Library Audio-Visual Theater
Wittenberg University

College educators may participate remotely via a live, interactive webcast!

9:30 – 12:30 Session I
1:30 – 4:30 Session II

For in-person attendees, the workshop will include morning and afternoon coffee breaks, plus a complimentary lunch.

Workshop Facilitator:
Sarah Fremmerman Aptilon, Ph.D.

As a Senior Consultant for Japan Intercultural Consulting, Dr. Aptilon oversees the firm's Latin American operations. She is experienced in working with U.S., Japanese, and Latin American companies, and holds degrees in East Asian and Japanese Studies from Yale and Stanford University.

Sponsored by The Japan Foundation and Wittenberg University
Register by May 20th by contacting Dr. Lauren Crane at lcrane@wittenberg.edu.

